

Eungella General Store 1931

Built by W.B (Wally) Swayne
end of 1930,
opened Jan 1931

This was the front and entrance originally, facing what is now (2009) the Platypus Takeaway.
It is the same building as the current Eungella Store, before extensions were added.

SBIT Regulla 110721GP Vol24No11 Herbie Burgess joke to John Cunningham

More Step Back In Time

Herbie Burgess joke to John Cunningham

The following is an excerpt from a 'Once Upon A Tale' article written by Alice Old in 1992. It refers to pre 1919/1920 when 'Linga Longa' was in use.

“John Cunningham built a small house on the site where the shop now is, to house his family until his Guest House* was finished on the hill top. Herbie Burgess ** joked to John Cunningham ‘Don’t put windows in your house. Your girls will be peeking out over the road at my boys’ “

* 'Linga Longa' as featured in recent editions of the Regulla ** of the Burgess sawmill, which was initially directly opposite the shop
